

Magister Dormitory

Damage Compensation Policy

The Dormitory's Damage Compensation Policy applies to all Dormitory residents of the University of Pannonia - hereafter only students -, and every student or guest, temporarily staying in the Dormitory.

I. Damages, Damage Compensation

- a. All furniture items, any items placed in the room, and all other items constituting the inventory of the room are the financial responsibility of the students who have signed the room's inventory. Any and all damages have to be paid for by the student(s) responsible.
- b. Any damages that have been caused by inadvertence or on purpose to the Dormitory or any of its assets have to be compensated by the person responsible.
- c. The state of the common areas of the Dormitory is the common responsibility of any and all students living in the Dormitory.
- d. Damages must be paid for based on the incident account written by the dormitory's maintaining body (Egyetemi Centrum Kft.). Students who have any unpaid compensation fees cannot end their semester, cannot register in the next semester, and cannot be discharged from the University.
- e. The list of damage compensation fees for the dormitory's inventory, and common items is to be made public by the Dormitory Directorate before the beginning of the academic year. Any damages that have been caused by inadvertence or on purpose to the Dormitory or any of its assets have to be compensated by the person responsible. Any damages that have been caused by inadvertence or on purpose to the Dormitory or any of its assets have to be compensated by the person responsible. Damage compensation fees have to be paid at the Dormitory Directorate.

Veszprém, 2024. August 31.

Central Dormitory

Damage Compensation Policy

The Dormitory's Damage Compensation Policy applies to all Dormitory residents of the University of Pannonia - hereafter only students -, and every student or guest, temporarily staying in the Dormitory.

I. Damages, Damage Compensation

- a. All furniture items, any items placed in the room, and all other items constituting the inventory of the room are the financial responsibility of the students who have signed the room's inventory. Any and all damages have to be paid for by the student(s) responsible.
- b. Any damages that have been caused by inadvertence or on purpose to the Dormitory or any of its assets have to be compensated by the person responsible.
- c. The state of the common areas of the Dormitory is the common responsibility of any and all students living in the Dormitory.
- d. Damages must be paid for based on the incident account written by the dormitory's maintaining body (Egyetemi Centrum Kft.). Students who have any unpaid compensation fees cannot end their semester, cannot register in the next semester, and cannot be discharged from the University.
- e. The list of damage compensation fees for the dormitory's inventory, and common items is to be made public by the Dormitory Directorate before the beginning of the academic year. Any damages that have been caused by inadvertence or on purpose to the Dormitory or any of its assets have to be compensated by the person responsible. Any damages that have been caused by inadvertence or on purpose to the Dormitory or any of its assets have to be compensated by the person responsible. Damage compensation fees have to be paid at the Dormitory Directorate.

Veszprém, 2024. August 31.